RE: Lawrence Dunbar Reddick

LB Lawrence Dunbar Reddick, Professor, Coppin State
Teachers College, 2500 West North Avenue, Baltimore,
Maryland, currently resides 3704 Winterbourne Road,
Baltimore, Maryland.

On September 17, 1943, a source advised that he was told that Reddick was one of the most important unpublicized members of the Communist Party. su

This same source described Reddick as an "extremely intelligent Negro," who appeared to be "one of the Party encyclopedia," whose "knowledge of the written word is tremendous, and a source of information on Socialism and Communism here and in the Soviet Union." u

On February 5 and 11, 1954, Reddick was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, at Atlanta, Georgia, at which time he advised that he has made the advancement of the Negro race his career, and has been working in this behalf his entire adult life. He advised that because of this he has attended meetings of various groups that have had for their purpose the advancement of the Negro, even though he had, on occasions, recognized the fact that some of these groups were infiltrated and strongly influenced by the Communist Party. Reddick further advised that he had never been a member or sympathizer of the Communist Party. He advised that although he has no concern whatever for the Communist Party, he considers himself as a liberal, even to the degree of being a "left of center liberal," but a non-communist, and even might be considered an anti-communist. Reddick advised that during the past years, he had associated with a number of persons believed by him to possibly have been Communist sympathizers, but being a liberal himself had always respected their beliefs and opinions, as these persons had always respected his opinions.

This letterhead memorandum has been classified "Secret" because it contains information from NY 4099-S*, NY 3810-S*, and NY 3580-S*. These sources have furnished highly sensitive information with respect to the racial situation in the New York area, and the Communist infiltration thereof, and it is felt that this classification is necessary in order not to jeopardize the valuable positions of the informants in furnishing information of this nature. historic contribution if the Negro could come up with a program which not only explains and takes into account the deprivations which the Negro has suffered but also takes into account the new objective situation of the fact that thousands of both whites and Negroes are now unemployed and that something must be done because poor white people also suffered from slavery. Jones advised that their main purpose was to link preferential treatment with the struggle against poverty. (██████) 11

King mentioned the treatment of (President) Johnson in the book, and Jones stated "his friend", (Stanley Levison) said Hermine (Popper) felt that King should give his personal views of Johnson. Jones stated that this is particularly appropriate since the book will come out on the "threshold of the election."

Jones told King that he had talked to Ruth Bailey (who is an employee of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in the New York Office), about her status in the New York Office of the SCLC, and he said that he informed her that some changes were going to be made. He stated he told her that she would be requested to continue working but not as head of the office. Jones mentioned that she had not been paid for sometime, and King said he was not aware of this and wanted her to be paid. Jones mentioned that she took it upon herself to raise her own salary from $75.00 to $100.00 per week when Jack (O'Dell) left. Jones stated he felt they should not be required to pay this, but King said that he had agreed to pay $100.00. Jones said they should compromise and pay her $100.00 for half the time and $75.00 for the remaining time. Jones said she should not receive as much as $75.00 in the new position she will be given after the reorganization. Jones praised the new person (Adele Cantor) whom they have hired to head the New York Office of the SCLC. Jones mentioned that he and "our friend" could work out Bailey's future status with the SCLC. King stated that he would like to have this problem cleared up before he leaves on an extended trip starting on February 9, 1964. 4

King stated that he plans to go to Hawaii, for two weeks. He stated that while there he would speak to the Council of Churches at the University of Hawaii, and would speak to the State Legislature. He indicated that he would stay there for a few days on vacation. King said after he leaves Hawaii he would go to Los Angeles and San Francisco to attend fund raising rallies. 4

King wanted to know if Jones had talked to anyone or had given anymore thought to Bayard (Rustin), and Jones indicated that he had talked extensively with Cleve (Robinson, who is Secretary-Treasurer of District 65, of Retail, Wholesale, and Department Store Union, American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations) and also "our friend." Jones said that he told Bayard (Rustin) to keep the fifth and sixth open because Jones wanted him to speak to King. King said that Bayard called him last night and asked about the situation, and King stated that he told him that he would let Jones know and that he (Jones) would get in touch with him. King indicated that he did not know if it would be possible for him to meet with Bayard on February 6, 1964. King indicated that he would try to work it out so that he could see Bayard on February 7, 1964. 4

King mentioned that on February 6, 1964, he planned to go to a meeting of the Gandhi Society, (in New York City) and was making a speech at the New School for Social Research, and he also mentioned that he has to tape an interview with "Ladies of the Press." King said that he has to meet with Hermine (Popper) on February 7, 1964, and go over her editing. He stated that he plans to get a 12:00 noon plane back to Atlanta. 4

King asked if his speech at the New School for Social Research had gotten much publicity, and Jones replied that it had gotten a half page ad in "The New York Times". King discussed the possibility of discussing or using the "preferential treatment angle" for both whites and Negroes in this speech, and Jones told him he would have to be careful not to do anything to lose his copyright to the material in the book. Jones also advised him not to give copies of his speech to anyone. They agreed to use another chapter from the book for the speech. u

King mentioned that Bayard had requested King to tape several messages to give to the news media to be presented during the boycott (of New York City Public Schools), and King stated that he felt he should not do this. Jones agreed with him. Jones stated he was afraid King would make enemies by doing this because King would get the credit and the very people who wanted him to make the tapes would criticize him for stealing the glory when they did all of the work. King stated he did not want "to pervert the weight which he has by constantly throwing it around." u

Ann Jones (who is the wife of Clarence Jones), discussed with King his coming to New York on March 11, 1964, to speak to a meeting of the Committee for Democratic Voters. She stated she was aware that King was attempting to be a non-partisan. She said that they were inviting Republicans as well as Democrats, but she said the affair was being sponsored by the Democrats. King stated he did not wish to appear to favor either side, and he said he thought he had made a previous commitment. Ann stated they might be able to set a different date, and King said he would think about it and let her know. u

CS The same source furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on February 2, 1964. Levison mentioned that he was having some difficulty locating the manuscript of the final chapter of Martin Luther King's new book. Jones said that King wanted it in order to use it in his speech at the New School for Social Research on February 6, 1964. Levison said that King should save this for a worthwhile audience and that he does not think that the New School for Social Research is worthwhile for King. Jones agreed with this. Jones and Levison talked about the proposed boycott of New York City Public Schools on February 3, 1964. Levison said that James Donovan, who is the President of the Board of Education, is a "hoodlum who inspires violence." Levison felt that there would be violence at the schools being boycotted; Jones agreed with Levison.

~~40~~ The same source furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Harry Wachtel on February 2, 1964. Wachtel inquired why Jones does not call him more often, and Jones assured him that it was not because of the money owed Wachtel. Wachtel said that on May 9, 1964, he is giving a speech at Washington, D.C., before the Harvard Business Club, and he said that he would like to use some of King's material from the book. Jones indicated that this would be all right. Wachtel said that he had gotten a manuscript of King's new book, and Jones said that was sent to him for his information. Wachtel advised that he had spoken to Jack Greenberg, of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Legal Defense Fund, and that Greenberg said King spoke to him briefly about the NAACP and the SCLC working closer together. Jones said that this is a good idea because there should be some representation given to King's views by NAACP.

Jones said that "they" must discuss the problem of Bayard Rustin's position in the SCLC as there is a desire on the part of Martin to have a close association with Bayard."

Jones said that he feels that they must decide as to whether Rustin should become "an integral part of the SCLC or whether he should be permitted to go his own intellectual ways." Jones also said it "would not be good to have Bayard's intellect chained to too much responsibility." Wachtel indicated he felt that Rustin was needed in the SCLC and that it would be a good idea to have Rustin as a leader of the "Northern Branch of the SCLC." Jones said that "we don't want to interfere with Bayard's flexibility." Wachtel indicated that he would try to see King on February 7, 1964.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 1, 1964, that on that date, Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison. They discussed the forthcoming book by Martin Luther King with Jones stating that some thought should be given to the changing of the placing of some information concerning the "white worker" in a chapter of the book. Jones also stated that "he" does not have a copy of the "additional material and would like Levison to "get it to him as soon as possible". Levison said he would send it out on Monday, February 3, 1964. [REDACTED] 4

Jones indicated that he had sent all of the material on Adele to King and that King is upset because the mailing list is all fouled up. Levison said that he has been trying to get Jack O'Dell to help Adele "to get the loose ends straightened up". [REDACTED] 4

It is noted that Adele Cantor has agreed to begin work at the New York Office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), as of February 3, 1964, and that Levison has been attempting to get O'Dell to meet with Cantor since he formerly handled the operation of the New York Office. [REDACTED] 4

Levison said that O'Dell told him that he was going to Atlanta soon and wondered if O'Dell was doing this to see "The Man" to plead Ruth's side of the case. Jones said that Bevel invited O'Dell to Atlanta, that O'Dell was going to Atlanta to attend a conference. [REDACTED] 4

It is noted that Ruth Bailey, an employee of the New York Office of the SCLC, has been running that office since O'Dell left the SCLC and that the Reverend James Bevel is a Field Secretary for the SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia. ~~4~~

O'Dell left New York City for Atlanta, Georgia, on the morning of February 1, 1964, via Delta Airlines. ~~4~~

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 31, 1964, that, on that date, a representative of the publishers of the Martin Luther King book was in contact with Stanley Levison. They discussed having Levison review the edited portions of King's book which thus far is about six chapters, or about 116 pages. The representative said there are still two chapters to be finished, that the publishers are going to make it a "hard cover" publication and give it a big send-off, and that the book will be out in early June. They agree it is turning into something timely and important. Levison said that he would be at the office of the publisher's representatives on February 3, 1964. ~~4~~

Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who is also known as Jack O'Dell, was formerly employed as Administrator for the SCLC Office in New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 17, 1962, that as of July, 1962, Hunter Pitts O'Dell, was considered by Communist Party of the United States of America (CP,USA) as a member of its National Committee. ~~4~~

It is to be noted that it has been determined that when King and Jones refer to their mutual friend, they are referring to Stanley Levison. ~~(S)~~ 4

The boycott of New York City Public Schools took place on February 3, 1964. Its purpose was to protest alleged racial imbalance in New York City public schools.

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 14, 1963, page 7, column 1, contains an article captioned "Thurmond Assails A Leader of March". The article stated that, in answer to charges by Senator Strom Thurmond, Bayard Rustin admitted joining the Young Communist League (YCL) in 1936. Rustin also reportedly stated that he broke completely with the YCL in June, 1941.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", issue of February 25, 1957, page 1, column 1, contained an article which stated that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was one of eight non-communist observers at the Communist Party National Convention in 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild:

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

ReBulet to Boston dated January 3, 1964, captioned as above.

On January 7, 1964, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that the Reverend VIRGIL WOOD has an office located in the
Roxbury, Massachusetts. 45 Harkness St.

Reverend WOOD is reportedly using this office to develop a branch of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in the Greater Boston area.

~~OR SUBJECT ORGANIZATION~~

[redacted] stated that he has learned nothing more concerning WOOD beyond the fact that he came from Virginia within the past couple of months.

On February 17, 1964, [redacted] was recontacted in regard to the above and he advised he had no other additional information to furnish in regard to the SCLC or WOOD.

The Richmond Office by letter to Director dated December 12, 1963 captioned, "COMING SCLC, IS - C" advised that the Reverend VIRGIL A. WOOD, formerly Pastor of the Diamond Hill Baptist Church, Lynchburg, Virginia and a member of the Executive Board of the SCLC, had left Virginia for the Boston area during November, 1963.
WOOD, according to the files of the Richmond Office, has been Organizer and President of the Lynchburg Chapter SCLC, and President of the Virginia Chapter of the same organization. He has been active in sit-in demonstrations in Lynchburg and Danville, Virginia and was arrested for this activity in both cities.

The morning edition of the November 12, 1963 "Boston Globe", a daily newspaper published in Boston, Massachusetts contained an article captioned, "Clerics Brave Dixie Jail". The article states that ten New England clergymen comprising the newly formed Massachusetts unit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the organization headed by Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, left Boston, Massachusetts at 5:00 p.m., on November 11, 1963 en route to Williamston, North Carolina where they will be the first white persons to demonstrate in Williamston. The article identified Williamston, North Carolina as a town with a population of 6,000, half of whom are Negro and half white, where peaceful demonstrations have been conducted for 130 days and where it is reported that 230 persons have been arrested. The clergymen announced that their purpose in travelling to Williamston was "to affirm their Christian belief that all men are members of the same human family".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~N.C. Mass.

Professor HARVEY COX, one of the participants, of Andover-Newton Theological School, said he wanted to "make it clear that we are not travelling from one section where there is no segregation to a section where there is. We are not going as innocent white Christians to point the finger at Southerners. We are going in response to a call from fellow Christians."

The morning edition of the December 4, 1963 "Boston Globe" contained an article which read, in part, as follows:

"Clergy Back From N.C. Jail

"Five of the 13 Massachusetts clergymen involved last month in an anti-segregation demonstration in Williamston, N.C., indicated here Tuesday that their work in Williamston is just starting, that there is still a long, hard road ahead.

"At the same press conference, it was announced that a task force of about 80 adults, young people, and ministers from the southern unit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, will come to the Boston area around Dec. 23 to stage a Williamston demonstration in reverse.

"They will do for Boston what we did in Williamston," explained Rev. Virgil A. Wood, president of the Massachusetts unit of the SCLC. "They will help us achieve whatever freedom goals we have projected for our community."

"The ministers, however, have not given up hope and feel their mission in a sense, was successful. 'While it has not had any visible effects (at improving the situation), 'we are confident our efforts will be fruitful,' said Rev. Mr. Wood."

The late city edition of the December 27, 1963 "Boston Herald", a daily newspaper published at Boston, Massachusetts, contained an article captioned, "Will Never Turn Back, Say Freedom Marchers". The article is as follows:

James Breeden

"A new spirit is abroad in the land. We shall never turn back."

"These were the sentiments of the Rev. James Breeden and the leaders of the recent Freedom March in Williamston, N.C., who participated in last night's Freedom Rally at St. Paul's Cathedral.

"You've recently come from the firing line," the Rev. Breeden told the Williamston Unit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, whose freedom songs filled the sanctuary. "Well, we're on the firing line too," he said.

"The Williamston Unit has come to New England at the invitation of the Massachusetts Unit, whose president, the Rev. Virgil A. Wood is leading each of the rallies scheduled in the New England area.

"Since Nov. 5 about 40 members of the Massachusetts Unit have participated in similar rallies in Williamston. They were the first white people to attend any of the rallies and demonstrations there and go to jail.

"The Williamston group will appear in four more Massachusetts communities before the end of the month and at Mt. St. Joseph's Auditorium in Rutland, Vt., on New Year's Eve.

"Tonight's rally will be held at the Methodist Church, Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard."

On February 19, 1964, the Reverend Mr. VIRGIL A. WOOD, 45 Hartford Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts was contacted by means of a pretext by SA [redacted] in the guise of a free lance writer seeking information about segregation and associated Negro problems in the Greater Boston area.

WOOD stated he came from Lynchburg, Virginia to Boston, Massachusetts in November, 1963 where he was Pastor of the Diamond Hill Baptist Church. He said he came to Boston at the invitation of the Andover-Newton Theological School, Newton, Massachusetts, to accept the Directorship of the Blue Hill Protestant Center and the Blue Hill Community Church, 288 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Massachusetts. He described this center as a Christian community seeking to meet the religious, social and civic needs of the neighborhood.

Mr. WOOD stated he graduated from the Andover-Newton Theological School in 1956 and was Pastor of the above named church for approximately five years prior to coming to Boston.

While in Virginia, WOOD said he joined the SCLC, an organization founded by the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING in Atlanta, Georgia in 1957. He said in 1963 he was a member of the National Board of this organization, but resigned from this position prior to coming to Boston. Since his arrival in Boston, he said he has been instrumental in forming a Massachusetts unit of the SCLC of which he is now the President. WOOD further advised he is also Regional Representative for this organization. Mr. WOOD said the Massachusetts unit of the SCLC maintains an office at 41 Winthrop Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts, and identified the following individuals as officers of this unit:

- 1) Reverend PAUL K. CHAPMAN, Secretary
(Baptist Minister) Ph. S. S.
- 2) Father JOHN HARMON, Treasurer
(Episcopalian Minister) MEMBERS OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION
- 3) Reverend Canon JAMES BREEDON, Vice President
(Vicar to Episcopal Bishop ANSON PHELPS STOKES)
- 4) Reverend VIRGIL A. WOOD, President (Director, Blue Hill Protestant Center, 288 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Massachusetts)

WOOD said that the Massachusetts unit of the SCLC was responsible for organizing and sending the group of Protestant clergymen (all white) to Williamston, North Carolina in November, 1963 to join a racial protest rally being held there.

The clergymen, all members of the Massachusetts unit, SCLC, responded to an invitation from the Williamston, Unit of the conference which was then planning a series of non-violent demonstrations in the City of Williamston, North Carolina.

During late December, 1963, Mr. WOOD said at the invitation of the Massachusetts unit, the Williamston, North Carolina unit of the SCLC consisting of approximately 80 adults and children came to Boston to stage a "Williamston, North Carolina Demonstration in Reverse".

Mr. WOOD said the bulk of his time is taken up with his directorial duties at the Blue Hill Protestant Center and what little time he has left, he gives to the Massachusetts unit of the SCLC.

WOOD further stated that at the present time, the unit has not been actively involved in any racial protest since all the officers are busily engaged in their own parish and church activities.

The following Boston informants, identified below, who are familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the Metropolitan Boston area advised on the dates indicated that captioned organization is unknown to them and that they have not received any information indicating that the Communist Party of New England is interested in infiltrating or joining this unit. The same informants stated that VIRGIL A. WOOD was unknown to them: X(u)

[redacted] an informant familiar with Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) activities [redacted]

advised SA [redacted] on January 20 and February 18, 1964 that the SWP and YSA have participated in activities of numerous racial sit-in and picket situations in the Boston area during the past year. However, he was not familiar with the SCLC or the Reverend VIRGIL A. WOOD. This informant further advised that he has no knowledge of any interest in the SCLC locally by the SWP or the YSA. (S)X

In view of the above, it is not believed that an investigation of this organization is warranted at this time. However, this office will remain alert through informant and confidential source coverage to any attempt of the Communist Party of New England and/or individuals associated with the Communist Party of New England or any other group to infiltrate, join or control the Massachusetts unit of the SCLC.

In the event Boston does receive any information of this kind, the Bureau will be promptly advised and this case will be reopened for further investigation at that time.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on February 18, 1964 which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Jones told Levison that he had not gotten the cards (containing names and addresses of those people on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) mailing list), but he said he would call Ruth Bailey who is an employee of the SCLC Office in New York) immediately. Levison stated that he had spoken to Joan Daves (who is the publisher's representative for Martin Luther King's forthcoming book), and he said that she was disturbed about the article (which King is writing) for "The Nation" because it is similar to the last chapter in King's book. Levison told Jones to contact King's secretary and have her send some copies of the article to him in order that he could go over the article with Joan Daves.

On February 18, 1964, the same confidential source furnished information that Joan Daves told Clarence Jones that Martin Luther King's new book would be published by June 1st. Jones made an appointment to meet Joan Daves on February 20, 1964 at her office, 145 East 49th Street, Room 9B.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1963 that, as of that time, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America. (E)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel for the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, [] that he had identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL). R14

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 18, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Joan Daves contacted Stanley Levison on that date. Daves stated that if "The Nation" article deals with the "same problems" as the book, then she will not be able to sell the material to the magazines for as much money. She said that she plans to sell or attempt to sell the advances to "Life" or "Post" ("Saturday Evening Post") and she hopes to get $5000.00. Levison promised to attempt to get her a copy of the article which will appear in "The Nation" in order that she can change the article if she thinks it should be changed. []

The source advised that Billy Rowe (public relations man in New York, who has been assigned to raise funds for the SCLC) was also discussed during Levison's and Jones' conversation. Jones remarked that Rowe wanted him to arrange to have Dr. King meet with business leaders in and around Harlem for the purpose of putting "freedom" on their payrolls. This would be accomplished by making annual contributions, the source advised. (S)

The source advised that later during the day, Levison contacted one McWilliams at "The Nation," informing him that he, Levison, would have Dr. Martin King's article by the end of the week. In reply to a question by Levison as to who circulates "The Nation," McWilliams said "Circulation Associates" handles the matter. Levison answered that he plans to start using "Circulation Associates" to deliver for the SCLC. (S)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1963, that as of July 16, 1963, ~~(S)(u)~~ Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA). (S)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel for the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he had identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL). (S)4

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[On October 28, 1958, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to Jean Smith, Secretary at Communist Party Headquarters, New York City, before Harry Belafonte came into prominence, he had been a member of the Young Communist League (YCL).] ~~(S)~~

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

With respect to the information concerning "The Nation" receiving an article from Martin Luther King, it is to be noted that an article is being prepared (by King) concerning the boycott (of New York City public schools) and the Senate filibuster.

On February 11, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Levison told Jones that they should get the lists (of contributors) from Ruth (Bailey, who is an employee of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) office in New York) as soon as possible, and Levison mentioned that she has the names of all people "over $20.00". Levison said he does not like the list being in her possession because of "the uncertainty", and Jones replied that he would get the list. Levison told Jones to bring the list to him either at his office or at the Gandhi Society office. According to Levison, Adele (Cantor, who was recently employed by the SCLC) would complete the necessary work on the list. Levison mentioned that he would like to get the list before Ruth learns of the change which is to be made, and he suggested that Jones tell her that Atlanta (office of the SCLC) wants the list.

With respect to the foregoing information, it is to be noted that the New York office of the SCLC is in the process of being reorganized. Adele Cantor was recently employed to work in the SCLC office.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Levison instructed Jones to tell Ruth Bailey that in the reorganization there would be no job for her and that Bayard (Rustin) is to take over one aspect of the work. Levison told Jones that he should not mention to her that Rustin is to have a secretary. Levison suggested Jones tell Bailey that Billy Rowe might have a job for her when he gets some project going.

Billy Rowe is a public relations man in New York City, and has been given the task of fund raising for the SCLC.

Jones told Levison that Saul Mills is working with a man "in a direct mail appeal outfit" and the man wants to do something for the civil rights movement and for King (Martin Luther King). According to Jones, this individual is located at 375 Park Avenue (New York City). Levison indicated he was pleased with this and instructed Jones to set up a meeting before he (Levison) and Adele "go south". Levison said that they will have to get "a mailing out soon and the guy may be able to help". Levison remarked that they will use their own lists from "The Nation" and the Committee for an Effective Congress for a 60,000 mailing.

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 14, 1963, page 7, column 1, contains an article captioned, "Thurmond Assails A Leader of March". The article stated that, in answer to charges by Senator Strom Thurmond, Bayard Rustin admitted joining the Young Communist League (YCL) in 1936. Rustin also reportedly stated that he broke completely with the YCL in June, 1941.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", issue of February 25, 1957, page 1, column 1, contained an article which stated that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was one of eight non-Communist observers at the Communist Party National Convention in 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

It should be noted that the source previously, has furnished information that O'Dell has been in contact with Martin King, a civil rights leader in Albany, Georgia, who is active in the Albany movement, about a letter which O'Dell prepared that calls for communications to be sent to the Attorney General asking that indictments against the leaders of the civil rights in Albany, Georgia, be dropped. This letter was prepared for the signature of someone other than O'Dell, possibly Martin Luther King.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1962, that as of that time, O'Dell was considered by the Communist Party, United States of America, as being a member of its National Committee.

Wyatt Tee Walker is the Assistant to Martin Luther King in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The "Los Angeles Times", a large metropolitan Los Angeles newspaper, on 2/17/64 reported that KING appeared before 2,000 people on Sunday, 2/16/64, at the Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles. KING delivered his famous "letter" from St. Paul on Crete to American Christians, according to the article. Seated on the platform with KING were Dr. THOMAS KILCORE, JR., Pastor, Second Baptist Church; Reverend HARRY A. MC KNIGHT, JR., Executive, Los Angeles Church Federation; Dr. CAYRAUD WILMORE, Director, United Presbyterian Commission on Religion and Race; Dr. COLIN WILLIAMS, Director, National Council of Churches, Department of Evangelism; Dr. RALPH RICHARDSON, Associate Director of the aforementioned organization.

The "Los Angeles Times", in another article on 2/17/64, reported that KING also appeared before 500 people at an installation banquet of the all negro Consolidated Realty Board of Los Angeles. This affair was held at the Hollywood Palladium. KING stated in part, according to the article, that the repeal of the (California State) Rumford Housing Act would "be one of the most shameful developments in our nation's history". The article noted KING attacked people who state civil rights cannot be legislated, asserting that desegregation can be and that is a major step toward integration. He stated that if the Civil Rights bill going before the Senate does not pass, "The sore of racial injustice on our body politic will grow malignant". The article noted that besides RUMFORD, California State Assemblyman, the guests included Attorney General STANLEY MOSK, State Comptroller ALAN CRANSTON, and Supervisor KENNETH HAMN. Attorney General MOSK gave Dr. KING a check for $10,000.00, which was pledged by persons attending a recent party hosted by the Attorney General and Mr. and Mrs. VICTOR CARTER. The article furnished no additional identifying data concerning VICTOR CARTER, nor did it state where this function had been held.

On February 15, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. They discussed the mailing list for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and Jones promised that he would go to the SCLC office (in New York) and get the list. Jones said that Adele Cantor (a new employee of the SCLC in New York) could pick the list up at his office. Levison told Jones that this would be a good time for Jones to tell Ruth Bailey (an employee of the SCLC in New York) that she is no longer needed and to obtain a door key to the office. Levison asked if Jones had a key to the safety deposit box for the SCLC, and Jones replied that he did not have a key. Levison stated he could probably have a key made because he paid the box rent himself and was one of the signators on the box. (S)

Re: Communist Party,

Jones stated that he and Ann (his wife) "have to do something about some money which they might come into in the future," and he wanted to know if Levison would serve as a trustee along with him. Jones stated that this concerns purely personal affairs. Levison said he would think about it. [REDACTED] (b) (2)

Levison stated it was very important for Jones to get in touch with Martin Luther King regarding the article coming out in "The Nation" concerning the boycott (of New York City Public Schools) before it goes out of date. Jones said he would contact King who is in Los Angeles. [REDACTED] (b) (2)

On February 16, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Martin Luther King at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles on that date. Jones asked King if he had received the article for "The Nation" concerning the Senate filibuster. Jones said "they" wanted King to mail the article immediately "so it will be timely and so they will be able to obtain 'The Nation's' mailing lists in exchange for the SCLC mailing list". [REDACTED]

King mentioned that he was getting ready to preach at Reverend Tom Kilgore's church. Jones asked King to tell Kilgore (who is an official in the SCLC) that he (Jones) has mailed the names and addresses of people who might be considered in staffing the SCLC office in Los Angeles. King further stated that he was going to Hawaii from Los Angeles and would not return until February 24. [REDACTED]

Jones stated he wanted Adele Cantor and "a person in New York" to come down to Atlanta and get together with Ed Clayton (who is Director of Public Relations for the SCLC). Jones said he did not want them to come down until King was in town. [redacted]

On February 14, 1964, the second confidential source furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Ruth Bailey at the SCLC office in New York on that date. Jones mentioned that he had been talking to Ed Clayton and that he was interested in the status of the "so called gold carat list." Jones asked if there was such a list. She stated that there is a "gold carat list" and that it is maintained at the office, and she indicated that the list is made up of people who will contribute $20.00 and up. Jones indicated that he would like to come to the office and go through the list. [redacted]

The boycott of New York City Public Schools took place on February 3, 1964. It was a demonstration to protest the alleged racial imbalance in the New York City Public Schools.

With respect to the information concerning Adele Cantor and "a person in New York" going to Atlanta to meet with Ed Clayton, it is to be noted that the source on February 11, 1964, furnished information which indicated that Levison and Adele were to "go south." [redacted] 24 dated 5/26/59, which reported that the House Un-American Activities Committee and others who accused integrationists of subversion were assailed by the Reverend FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH of Birmingham at a rally for Civil Liberties held in Louisville, Kentucky. According to this article, the rally was sponsored by the Citizens Committee for Shuttlesworth and was coordinated by the SCEF, of which Mr. SHUTTLESWORTH is a board member. According to this communication, SHUTTLESWORTH made a special plea for the support of white persons to stand up for integration. He went to Louisville with the avowed purpose of protesting against the treatment of two white integrationists, CARL and ANNE BRADEN, who had been jailed on sedition charges in 1954 after they acted as agents for a Negro family in the purchase of a house in a previously all-white neighborhood. After these charges were dismissed, BRADEN was given a year in prison for refusing to answer questions of the Un-American Committee about his work in the integration movement.

APPENDIX

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 27, 1963, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On May 27, 1963, the second source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

The second source also advised on May 27, 1963, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

CONFERENCE.~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Birmingham Confidential Informant T-1 advised on February 17, 1964, that a state-wide meeting of the SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE, a pro-integration organization, will be held in Montgomery, Alabama, on March 4, 1964. T-1 stated this is an annual meeting of the various affiliates or chapters of the SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE in the State of Alabama. T-1 said that Reverend N. H. SMITH, JR., Pastor of the New Pilgrim Baptist Church, Birmingham, is president of the SCLC in Alabama and will preside at this meeting. T-1 said the vice president of the SCLC in Alabama is Reverend A. D. W. KING, who is Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Ensley, Birmingham, Alabama. This informant said that in his opinion this meeting will involve discussion of the various phases of the racial situation in the State of Alabama, such as the present status of integration of the schools in Macon County, Alabama, etc. 4

T-1 stated he believes there are chapters of the SCLC in the following Alabama cities: Birmingham, Tuscaloosa, Montgomery and Mobile. Informant said that insofar as he knows this meeting will be confined to members of the SCLC in the State of Alabama, although there will possibly be one or two representatives from the SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia, but he has no specific information about the latter. 4

DISCUSSION UNLIMITED

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A source advised on May 8, 1963, that "Discussion Unlimited" originated in Los Angeles, California, in May, 1962, and is composed largely of a number of present and former Communist Party members who assist in staging forums and in promoting such events. Coordinator of the group is Bernard LUSHER, who in 1961, was educational director of the Southern California District Communist Party. The basic concept of the group is to present "left ideas" to at least partially non-committed audiences. It proposes to develop special activities around various issues on an irregular basis. It is not a membership organization and does not hold regular meetings as such but is strictly a forum type organization.

~~On February 10, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Harry Wachtel contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Jones told Wachtel that Bayard Rustin is going to be "the northern representative for Dr. King" (Martin Luther King). He stated that it has not been announced but will be announced at a press conference. Jones said that everything has been worked out including salary and scale raises. According to Jones, King feels that Rustin "will be a shot in the arm" (for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC). Jones mentioned that he is looking for a midtown office for the New York SCLC. Jones also mentioned that he is having lunch with Saul Mills tomorrow.~~

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild:

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'

"We want better lines of communication between white and Negro, more direct lines, rather than the mayor contacting a few chosen Negro leaders who are not representative of the feelings of the Negro people at the grass roots."

Asked if any demonstrations are being planned, the pastor of Morningside Methodist Church, said: "We are keeping uppermost in our minds that we will do whatever is necessary to achieve our goals by direct action, and demonstrations are one means of direct action." However, he pointed out that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference is a non-violent organization, adding: "We're not trying to start a revolution but to start an evolution in a Christian sense."

The Fort Worth chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was organized Monday night. About 75 persons are now registered, Rev. M. E. HODGE said. The conference is well-established in all Southern States but not in Texas, he said. "I think perhaps there is a chapter organized now in Beaumont, but we plan to have chapters in all major cities in Texas," Rev. M. E. HODGE said. He said he is confident Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING will be in Fort Worth soon to "bring about whatever is necessary to orientate and implement" the conference's program, the newspaper stated.

The first mass meeting of the organization in Fort Worth will feature Rev. C. T. VIVIAN, of Atlanta, national director of affiliates. The meeting will start at 4:00 P.M., April 5, 1964, at Mount Olive Church, 1712 Evans Avenue, Fort Worth, according to the newspaper.

The "Fort Worth Star Telegram", morning edition of March 19, 1964, gave the following information concerning the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which was under the heading "Negro Anticipates Protests on Jobs":

"Demonstrations may be staged in Fort Worth to protest racial discrimination in employment, Rev. MARSHALL E. HODGE said Wednesday. Rev. HODGE is the president of the newly organized Fort Worth chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the civil rights movement headed by Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The "Fort Worth Star Telegram", a daily newspaper published in Fort Worth, Texas, in the evening edition of March 18, 1964, carried an article "New Head of Civil Rights Movement Says Protests May Be Held Here." The newspaper related that discrimination in employment is the key racial issue in Fort Worth today and if demonstrations are necessary to correct it there will be demonstrations. This was a view taken by the president of a newly formed Fort Worth chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. TCM

Rev. MARSHALL E. HODGE was reportedly elected this week as president of the local chapter of the Civil Rights movement headed by Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, the newspaper related.

The newspaper quoted HODGES as having said that while progress had been made in Fort Worth for Negroes in the areas of public accommodations there has been absolutely none in the field of employment. "We are extremely disturbed", he said "about the employment situation here. It is the key issue in Fort Worth." The agreement worked out last year by the mayor's human relations committee desegregated places to eat, sleep and be entertained, Rev. HODGE said. "But these things have been opened up ahead of the means to enjoy them," he said, meaning the majority of Negroes don't make enough money to take advantage of the changed situation.

"Whatever our plight was prior to that (the agreement), it has not been helped at all as far as employment is concerned." Further, Rev. HODGE said, the agreement announced by the mayor's human relations committee was made without many Negro leaders even being consulted.

"As to whether any demonstrations are definitely planned, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference president said, "... We will do whatever is necessary to achieve our goals by direct action, and demonstrations are one means of direct action."

"The Southern Christian Leadership Conference is a non-violent organization, Rev. RODGE said, adding, "We're not trying to start a revolution but to start an evolution in a Christian sense." Last year's agreement produced by the mayor's human relations committee desegregating places to eat, sleep and be entertained was mentioned by the minister as progress.

"But the majority of Negroes don't make enough money to take advantage of the changed situation, he added. "Whatever our plight was prior to that (the agreement) it has not been helped at all as far as employment is concerned," the minister said."

The NYO has pointed out in the past, that as a result of the NYO Counterintelligence Program action in regard to BAYARD RUSTIN, RUSTIN is now at the very least a controversial figure. On February 27, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Martin Luther King on that date. King stated that he is of the opinion that it is advantageous to bring Bayard Rustin in (to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)) and that he would hate to see Rustin's talent go to waste. King also remarked that he would hate "to see what Rustin can do for the SCLC and for me go out the window." King mentioned in regard to Rustin, that he feels the assets are so great that the liabilities may not matter. King said that he had discussed the matter with Harry (Wachtel) and that it was decided to have another talk with Rustin. According to King, Harry is to discuss the matter with Jones, and King suggested that they might set a time for the talk and that he (King) might come to New York before making the announcement (that Bayard Rustin will become associated with Martin Luther King as of March 15, 1964). King said that he wants to get

"certain ground rules clear." King mentioned that "since we talked there is this report (of) active identification with this committee for Cuba." Jones stated that if Rustin comes into the SCLC, the question would be to what extent his associations would be under "controlled conditions." Jones indicated that Rustin had become a controversial figure in the civil rights movement because of his past associations.

Jones mentioned to King that he is quite surprised that Rustin has been so quiet in the past few weeks in connection with the school boycott matter even though he had played a leading role. Jones added that he had heard that some people around Galamison (Reverend Milton A. Galamison, Chairman of the Citywide Committee for Integrated Schools) have given the impression through "their narrow sectarian position that there may be some ultra-left people involved." Jones stated that in view of this, he was concerned about Rustin's position because if Rustin becomes associated with the SCLC, there might be a problem arising out of the school boycott which would complicate the problem further. Jones added that nothing has happened publicly in this regard.

Jones also mentioned that if King has been getting inquiries (in connection with Rustin), the decision about Rustin becomes a crucial one and has to be thought through carefully. Jones indicated that they should have an opportunity "to reconfirm" that bringing Rustin in is the correct thing to do. King stated that he would attempt to work out a time for a discussion, but he indicated that he did not think he would have an opportunity before March 15, inasmuch as he has other commitments in the South. King advised Jones that he would let him know about the time of the meeting.

King told Jones that Harry's feelings on Rustin are that he has great talent and that he is respected in the North, and that "this thing on the Russian Embassy didn't really do any damage," but "bounced back" on the newspapers. King stated that Harry is of the opinion that they should examine it again before making a final decision. Jones said his feelings are that "if it's about 50-50" he would resolve it in favor of not taking Rustin on, but he indicated that the assets would have to be weighed against the liabilities. King suggested that they all think about the situation. Jones mentioned that he thinks the political aspects of the civil rights movement might get "sharp" and the attacks on King may increase on this kind of a question as they, the right, seek to spread their influence in the presidential election period. King agreed, saying this gives them (the right) "one more weapon in their arsenal however false these things are" and that they are building up all of these things to get the minds of people off the main issue. King reiterated his desire to think about the situation and re-evaluate it. King said that he would see if he could come to New York one day the following week. Jones said that he would be there on Saturday, and King said he would see him then.

With respect to King's reference to Saturday, it is to be noted that King was scheduled to appear at a fund raising luncheon, which is being sponsored by the Westchester County Urban League. The luncheon was scheduled for February 29, 1964 at 12:30 p.m. at Governor Rockefeller's Estate, Pocontico, Westchester County, New York.

The boycott of New York City Public Schools took place on February 3, 1964. It was a demonstration to protest the alleged racial imbalance in New York City Public Schools.

It is to be noted that Bayard Rustin was scheduled to speak at the Emergency Committee for Disaster Relief to Cuba on February 26, 1964, but he indicated that, after giving the matter some thought, he would not speak.

On February 4, 1964, Bayard Rustin appeared at a cocktail party at the Soviet United Nations Mission.

Emergency Committee for Disaster Relief to Cuba

A source advised that on October 17, 1963, about 20 individuals representing various pro-Cuban organizations which have previously supported sending medical aid to Cuba, met at the apartment of Dr. Louis A. Miller, 340 West 28th Street, New York, New York, Apartment 19J, New York, New York, for the purpose of forming a committee to raise funds to assist hurricane "Flora" victims in Cuba. According to the informant the pro-Cuban organizations represented were the Jose Marti Club of the Bronx, New York, West Side Committee for Friendly Relations with Cuba, Casa Cuba, Fair Play for Cuba Committee and the former Medical Aid to Cuba Committee.

Literature distributed by the ECDRC at a later date reflected that the chairman of the committee is Sidney J. Gluck and the Medical Director Dr. Louis A. Miller. The committee's headquarters are at 41 Union Square West, Room 311, New York 3, New York, and its literature stated that the ECDRC is a non-profit organization to help Cuban victims of hurricane "Flora" by collecting funds for the purchase of food, medicine and relief supplies.

A second source advised that Sidney J. Gluck, whose real name is Isadore Glick, maintained a 1943 Communist Party (CP) membership book in his possession in 1944.

Louis F. Budenz, former editor of the "Daily Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, stated in 1950 that as late as 1945 he was advised by Jack Stachel, CP leader, that Dr. Louis A. Miller was an active member of the CP.

On February 28, 1964, a confidential source, [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Levison stated that it is very important "we" contact Martin Luther King over the weekend. Levison inquired about King's plans, and Jones replied that King would arrive from Atlanta, Georgia, at 4:00 a.m. on February 29, 1964, and would remain until 5:00 p.m. Jones stated that King will stay at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel (Broadway and 34th Street, New York City). Jones also advised that King would be picked up at approximately 11:00 a.m. on February 29, 1964, by Rodman Rockefeller (a son of Governor Nelson Rockefeller) and driven to the luncheon meeting at Pocontico Hills, New York, which is in Westchester County. Levison said, "We must without fail talk to Martin (Luther King) tomorrow (February 29, 1964) and discuss the problem of the filibuster (in connection with civil rights legislation) and get the all important question of Bayard (Rustin) answered."

Levison mentioned that he had just finished a copy of the magazine "Progressive" and he said that it reflects that the civil rights organization, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, has, through its activities, in a large measure replaced the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in the eyes of the civil rights minded people. Continuing, Levison said that the "SCLC's failure can only be attributed to King's failure to have any definite plans on anything and also due to his complete lack of leadership ability." Levison stated that "we" must emphasize to King that the fact that he might raise $25,000 from the Rockefellers tomorrow is not as important as the fact that King must take a stand on the filibuster in the Senate. Levison also said that it is possible that both the SCLC and the influence of King might be "second rate in a short time unless we can get to King." Jones suggested that it might be well for him (Jones) to go to Atlanta with Levison next week to spend some more time in order to "shake King up." Levison agreed with this and suggested that they discuss it further. Levison and Jones agreed to meet with King at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel between 9:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. on February 29, 1964.

On February 28, 1964, the same confidential source furnished information that Billy Rowe contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Jones said that he would make arrangements for Rowe (a New York public relations man who has been given the task of fund raising for King) to go with King tomorrow. He instructed Rowe to meet King at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel at 11:00 a.m. on February 29, 1964.

"The New York Times" of Sunday, March 1, 1964, contains an article on page 80, captioned "DR. KING, at ROCKEFELLER ESTATE, addresses URBAN LEAGUE RALLY." In this article, it was stated that a luncheon meeting took place at the Rockefeller estate, Pocontico Hills, New York, in order "to galvanize civic-minded Westchester residents into support of a $50,000 fund-raising campaign in behalf of the Urban League of Westchester." According to the article, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), warned that if the public-accommodations and fair-employment provisions of the Civil Rights Bill were eliminated "it would be better to have no civil rights bill at all." It was also mentioned in the article that King criticized the stand which Senator Barry Goldwater has taken on states rights by saying "the states' should have rights but no state has the right to do wrong."

It was mentioned in the article that King addressed a racially mixed audience of ninety guests and thanked the Rockefeller family for its support of "human rights and human dignity." Rodman C. Rockefeller, a son of Governor Rockefeller and a member of the Board of the Westchester Urban League, was the luncheon host.

At 8:58 am on February 29, 1964, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Stanley Levison enter the lobby of the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel, 34th Street and Broadway, New York City. He made inquiry at the registration desk for the room number of Dr. Martin King and was informed that King was in Room 1631. Levison waited in the lobby until 9:17 am then went on the elevator, which later stopped on the 16th floor.

With respect to Stanley Levison's reference to Bayard (Rustin), it is to be noted that Bayard Rustin is scheduled to begin on March 15, 1964, as Martin Luther King's representative in the north.

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue

On March 5, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Clarence Jones conferred with Stanley Levison on that date. He told Levison that he had not been able to reach Bayard Rustin, therefore he was considering sending him a telegram and wanted his home address. He said he would try to contact him, prompting Levison to remark that as crazy as it sounds, he (Jones) may find that Bayard (Rustin) has changed his mind (about accepting the position as Northern Coordinator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference), when people tell him he is going to be under Clarence Jones. (6) - U

During their conference, Levison inquired if Jones was planning to go to Atlanta. Jones answered affirmatively, causing Levison to suggest that Jones and Adele (Cantor, an employee in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) go down by plane. Jones assented. (6) - U

Jones mentioned that he had a brochure which contains an article by Kunstler and Kinoy, whom he said, claim to be lawyers for Martin Luther King. Levison said this was a false claim which should be dealt with while they are in Atlanta. Jones said he had already sent the information to King. Levison said "they" will have to deal with this matter because King has not dealt with people who have hurt him in the past. (S) - U

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 6, 1964, that Adele Cantor made reservations at Pennsylvania Station, New York, New York for Stanley Levison to depart New York City at 3:00 p.m. on March 8, 1964 for Atlanta. Montgomery, Alabama

[redacted] Alabama Department of Public Safety Investigator, Montgomery, Alabama, advised on March 2, 1964 that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was to have a local leadership meeting in Montgomery on March 4, 1964, reportedly at the First Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, 776 South Holt Street. Attendance was evidently by invitation by letter and the purpose of this meeting was to make plans for a "giant statewide mass meeting" reportedly to take place Sunday, March 8, 1964, specific church not identified. In the letter which was sent to invitees the writers of the letter, Martin Luther King, Jr., president; Ralph D. Abernathy, treasurer, and C. Vivian, Director of affiliates, SCLC, mentioned they had evaluated the assassination of President Kennedy and had talked with President Johnson. They remained that the Civil Rights bill is in Congress and "We have a clear program before us - the time for action is here!"

Police Department, both advised that Reverend King and Reverend Abernathy were expected to be present. The others were to be Rev. b7C
Solomon S. Seay and Reverend Nelson Smith, Jr., SCLC representatives in Alabama.

The meeting was expected to last all day March 4, 1964.

Reverend Solomon S. Seay, Sr., advised on March 3, 1964 that the statewide leadership meeting described above was initiated by Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr. He said he understood that King and other SCLC leaders wanted to talk to Montgomery leaders about holding some demonstrations in Montgomery.

Racial Situation

Reverend Seay said, "We here on the local scene are not thinking in terms of demonstrations here, but sometimes there are people from out of town who can get these demonstrations started and when enough local people fall in line." Seay indicated he does not believe that there will be demonstrations in Montgomery in the near future, but said he could not guarantee this.

Jack Venable, news commentator, WSB-TV, Montgomery, related on the 10:00 p.m., news March 4, 1964, that Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., announced on that date a five-point program for the SCLC to follow in its assault on segregation in Alabama. Speaking to approximately 800 Negro leaders from throughout the State of Alabama earlier that day Doctor King had named segregation in Alabama the chief target for the SCLC in 1964.

The March 5, 1964, issue of the Montgomery Advertiser, daily newspaper published at Montgomery, carried an article on page 30, captioned "Negroes OK Five-Point Action Plan." This article confirms the above information and both the television announcement and the news article designated the five points of the program approximately as follows:

1. Intensification of voter registration drives to increase the number of Negro voters in 1964.

2. Mass mobilization to secure the rights of a better life for every Negro. The Advertiser article said that King said the group would employ every non-violent technique to secure this point.

3. Selective buying campaign - campaigns aimed at buying only "where we can work."

4. A push for passage of the pending Civil Rights bill.

5. An appeal to Congress to limit the number of Alabama congressmen to "conform to the actual voting population until the vote is extended to every person of color."

Mr. Venable's announcement stated that Doctor King indicated there was a possibility of further racial demonstrations throughout Alabama.

Racial Situation
State of Alabama

Charles Cox, news director, WSFA-TV, stated on the 6:00 p.m., news announcement, March 4, 1964, that Doctor King had said on March 4, 1964 that racial demonstrations would be resumed in Birmingham, Alabama, probably in March 1964. Cox also said it was announced that there would be an intensified voter registration drive in Montgomery.

Rev. Solomon S. Seay, Sr., president of the Montgomery Improvement Association, an affiliate of the SCLC and host to the meeting on March 4, 1964, advised on March 5, 1964, that no significant information or decisions were reached at the March 4, 1964 meeting which were not described in the newspaper article pertaining to the announcement by Mr. Cox at 6:00 p.m., March 4, 1964. Reverend Seay stated this was "merely a rumor." He said that undoubtedly someone at the meeting made a statement to the effect that there would be a resumption of racial demonstrations at Birmingham in March 1964, but said this is not any part of a responsible policy or program of the SCLC.

The newspaper article cited above quoted Doctor King as commenting on bi-racial committees. Doctor King is quoted as saying, "We believe positively in good faith negotiations, but some of them they are window-dressing committees." Asked specifically about the committees recently set up in Montgomery, Doctor King said, "The hour has come for Montgomery, Alabama, to face the truth. This is Montgomery's hour of truth." This article also relates that Doctor Seay was the only person present who did not vote in favor of the five-point resolution. Doctor Seay objected to the reference to Montgomery because he said he did not know about it beforehand. He also objected to the fact that no member of the Montgomery Improvement Association was on the board that drew up the resolution.

Prattville, Alabama

A state meeting of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was held at Prattville on Sunday, March 1, 1964, primarily to elect state officers. Robert M. Creel, of Bessemer, Alabama, was elected grand dragon of the State of Alabama. At this meeting Creel announced plans for a Klan rally at Tuskegee, Alabama, on March 14, 1964, which is discussed in greater detail hereinafter under the heading Tuskegee, Alabama."

Tuskegee, Alabama

At the state meeting March 1, 1964 at Prattville, Alabama, Grand Dragon Robert M. Creel announced that there would be a rally at Tuskegee, Alabama, on March 14, 1964. There was no discussion of possible violence at this rally on the floor of the meeting, but it was observed that of the 86 persons present, a large number, approximately half, appeared to be armed with a pistol of some kind. The details of the rally were not discussed and it was indicated that the leaders of the two Montgomery klaverns, Lawrence Lodge 610 and the Confederate Den 11, were supposed to work out the details and publish them in a leaflet to be distributed in the near future. (MO T-1, and MO T-2, [redacted])

b7D

Certain leaders of Den 11, United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and Lawrence Lodge 610, United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, both of Montgomery, Alabama, have recently indicated that efforts are being made to make the rally at Tuskegee, Alabama, on March 14, 1964, a very large rally, appeals being made to klansmen not only from Alabama, but from other states, to be present. Tentatively the time is set for the early evening, and the general location, near Tuskegee Institute at Tuskegee. There is substantial talk to the effect that after the rally groups of klansmen may get together and "do a little head-knocking." This is interpreted to mean that klansmen may roam around in groups in and near Tuskegee, occasionally seizing and striking a Negro for the purpose of general intimidation. (MO T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, [redacted])

A small group of individuals at Notasulga, Alabama, reportedly have been obtaining names and exact addresses and locations of the residences of the 12 Negro students who are attending the Macon County High School at Notasulga, Alabama, and the Shorter High School at Shorter, Alabama. It was indicated that when the list is complete it will be given to persons outside of Macon County, not identified, who will take some action against the students or their families, all at the same time. The nature of this action was also not described or identified. (MO T-2, [redacted])

APPENDIXUNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INCORPORATED
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klans, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

Second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama on October 22, 1961, the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Negroes OK Five-Point Action Plan

Integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., announced Wednesday a five-point assault on segregation in Alabama, "the chief target of our program for 1964."

The program, which King said would be put into effect in communities throughout the state, was approved at a meeting of about 200 Negro leaders from the state.

The program:

—To intensify voter drives to increase the number of Negro voters in this election year.

—Mass mobilization to secure "the right of a ballot for every Negro." King said, the group would employ every non-violent technique to insure this point.

—A campaign aimed at "buying doors only where we can work."

—A push for passage of the pending civil rights bill.

—An appeal to Congress to limit the number of Alabama congressmen to "conform to the actual voting population until the vote is extended to every person of color."

Commenting on committees set up to work out racial problems, King said, "we believe positively in good faith negotiations, but too often they are window-dressing committees." Asked about committees recently set up in Montgomery, he said, "The hour has come for Montgomery, Ala., to face the truth. This is Montgomery's hour of truth."

Only one person did not vote for the five - point resolution when those favoring were asked to stand during the meeting. He was the Rev. S. S. Seay Sr., president of the Montgomery Improvement Association.

Before the vote, Seay objected to the reference to Montgomery because he said he did not know about it beforehand.

"I do think someone from our group should have been on the board and participated in drawing up the resolution," he said. The Montgomery association is an affiliate of the SCLC and was host to the meeting.

Seay did not stand to vote for the resolution, but also did not vote against it.

~~2-14-93~~

On March 2, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison on that date. Jones asked Levison if he and Adele Cantor (an employee of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) office in New York) were ready to go to Atlanta, Georgia, next Monday (March 9, 1964), and Levison replied that they were ready. Levison asked if Jones had heard from Bayard (Rustin), and Jones replied that he had not heard from him. Levison remarked that it would appear as though Bayard is avoiding "us". Levison stated that when he spoke to Martin Luther King on Saturday (February 29, 1964), King told him that "maybe we should tell Bayard that the matter is being reconsidered". Levison also remarked that as he recalled the plan was to make the announcement on the first (of March) and that Bayard was to start on the 15th (of March). Levison and Jones agree that after all the discussion which took place on Saturday (with King), "the weight is still on the side of taking Bayard." -4

[A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1963, that as of that time, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America.]

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 14, 1963, page 7, column 1, contains an article captioned "Thurmond Assails A Leader of March." The article stated that, in answer to charges by Senator Strom Thurmond, Bayard Rustin admitted joining the Young Communist League (YCL) in 1936. Rustin also reportedly stated that he broke completely with the YCL in June, 1941.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", issue of February 25, 1957, page 1, column 1, contained an article which stated that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was one of eight non-communist observers at the Communist Party National Convention in 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

On February 28, 1964, a confidential source [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Stanley Levison contacted Adele Cantor (an employee of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Office) on that date. Levison instructed Cantor to type a note to Martin Luther King in order to advise him that "we" had planned a schedule of mailing to have the mail reach the recipients while the filibuster (in the Senate in connection with civil rights legislation) is in progress. He indicated in connection with this mailing that it is necessary to take into consideration the time which will be needed to handle the second class mail and the time the people will need in order to make a response. Levison also indicated that if they could get King's approval on this, they could move ahead on it. In their discussion, Cantor and Levison indicated they would be interested in mailing 60,000 of these letters. Levison suggested that in the future, it might be better to use the services of "an envelope house". He pointed out that an "envelope house" would probably require payment in advance, and that since "we" have not set up a system with Atlanta (office of the SCLC), there would be a delay in getting a check. It is noted that the name SYLVIA CRANE appears on said letterhead both as an officer (Organization Liaison), and as a sponsor.

It is noted that [redacted] advised that at a meeting of the Washington Area Committee for the Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee held 1/14/64, in Washington, D.C., it was announced that the NCAHUAC will hold its annual meeting in Washington, D.C., in March, 1964. A two day meeting is planned, and the general public will not be invited. This meeting will be in the form of a work shop, ending with a luncheon which congressmen and members of the press will be invited to attend. It was also suggested that a tribute be made to AUBREY WILLIAMS and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. ~~(u)~~

JOHN BUTLER of Dallas, Texas, identified in testimony before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, on March 14, 1954, at New Orleans, Louisiana, as a former Communist Party member, testified that AUBREY WILLIAMS was introduced in 1952 as "Comrade WILLIAMS", that he participated with WILLIAMS in a "conference" of communist affairs about one month later and that he had heard WILLIAMS mentioned often as a communist.

PAUL CROUCH, identified at this same hearing as a former Communist Party organizer, testified that he was introduced to WILLIAMS by HERBERT BENJAMIN, whom he identified as a charter member of the Communist Party, and one of the "chief national leaders". CROUCH said that he would not have made statements to WILLIAMS unless "I had been informed that he was a secret member".

AUBREY WILLIAMS also testified at this hearing and denied ever having been a member of the Communist Party. He was cooperative with the committee and answered questions pertaining to his past association.

With regard to "DR. ALEX MIDDLEJOHN", mentioned in referenced Atlanta letter, it is noted that one DR. ALEX MEIKLEJOHN is listed on the letterhead of the NCAHUAC as one of three honorary chairman, and HARVEY O'CONNOR, Little Compton, Rhode Island, is listed as Chairman.

IS-C

Re Honolulu let 2/10/64.

Attached for the Bureau are 27 news articles or editorials from Honolulu Daily newspapers concerning the observance of Civil Rights Week by the University of Hawaii from February 17-20, 1964. Four Mainland speakers representing different organizations prominent in integration - segregation conflict spoke on the campus at Honolulu, Hawaii. There were JOHN ALI, National Secretary of the Nation of Islam, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING of the SCLC, JAMES FARMER of CORE, and WILLIAM J. SIMMONS of the White Citizens Council.

There was no indication of any Communist influence during the observance.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On April 3, 1964, Dallas confidential informant T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Reverend Marshall E. Hodge of the Morningside Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas, does not have the sanction of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Fort Worth. T-1 advised that this alliance is made up of all of the Negro ministers in Fort Worth, Texas. T-1 stated that at a meeting of this alliance held in Fort Worth on March 30, 1964, a resolution was passed stating that none of the members of this alliance would support Reverend Hodge in his drive to form a Fort Worth chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. A resolution was also passed that when Martin Luther King came to Fort Worth, Texas, on April 5, 1964, that they were not to attend and they were told to urge their congregations not to attend and not to assist Reverend Hodge in any way and that Reverend Hodge was to be considered an outcast. (u)

T-1 advised that Reverend Hodge was formerly assistant pastor at St. Andrew's Methodist Church, but he, together with about fifteen to twenty members, was expelled for causing dissension. These individuals then formed the Morningside Methodist Church. T-1 advised that Reverend Hodge was given $124 for transportation and $50 for food and lodging and sent to Birmingham, Alabama, to contact Reverend Martin Luther King to bring him to Fort Worth, Texas. T-1 advised that it had been determined that the three individuals who raised this money for Reverend Hodge were Dr. Marion Brooks, D.D.S.; T. E. Shadowen, a Fort Worth real estate dealer; and Attorney Clifton Davis of Fort Worth. (u)

T-1 further advised that the meeting at which Martin Luther King will speak will be held at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Elmwood and Evans Streets, Fort Worth. T-1 advised that the Baptist Ministerial Union has censured Reverend E. L. Dawson of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church for allowing his church to be used for this speech. T-1 further stated that it has been learned that most Negro business and professional societies are also attempting to disassociate themselves from the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Reverend Hodge. On March 11, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Levison stated that he had spoken to Martin (Martin Luther King) in regard to Bayard (Rustin), and he mentioned that a conclusion had been reached. Jones asked Levison if King had told him about Wyatt (Walker, who is Executive Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)), and Levison indicated that he and King had discussed this at great length. In regard to this, Jones mentioned that Walker had informed him that he (Walker) is going to be Director of the New York Office (of the SCLC). Jones also mentioned that Walker is concerned that he could not be director if Rustin is to be the Northern Coordinator (of the SCLC). According to Jones, Walker claimed that this is the reason that the decision to hire Rustin is to be vetoed. Levison also stated that he agreed with King that it is not wise to take Rustin on now with a filibuster (on the Civil Rights Bill in the Senate, apparently in the offing), but he said there is no question that he should be hired after the filibuster. Levison said that he made the point with King that Rustin should be paid at once, inasmuch as it would not be right to have him committed to the job and expect him to fend for himself for a period of perhaps two months. He stated that King agreed with his position. Levison said that he made this point, not only because he felt that it was proper, but also because he "wanted it pinned down."

Levison stated that he "violently objected to the Wyatt thing" (Walker's opposition to Rustin), but he mentioned that he could see that Rustin and Walker would be unable to get along. Levison remarked that King is not anxious to have Walker as an enemy and does not want Walker to leave (the SCLC) under circumstances where he would be hostile. According to Levison, King said that "Wyatt and Bayard will be subject to the same committee", and Levison stated that he told King that under those circumstances they could suffer along with Wyatt. Jones remarked that Walker wanted to make it clear that Rustin would be responsible to him (Walker), and this prompted Levison to reply that was not right that both would be responsible to "the committee." Continuing, Levison said if Walker leaves the SCLC, he (Levison) would not hesitate to tell Walker where he stands. Levison also said that he does not agree with King on "the hostile thing," and he added that he is afraid that Walker will stay with the SCLC to its detriment. 4

Levison stated that King wanted Jones and himself to see Rustin in order to explain the delay and when he can plan to start. Levison mentioned that he feels Rustin has much to do in the next 60 days in the way of preparation with which he can busy himself. Levison advised that Rustin should be paid inasmuch as he will be setting up an office and working out procedures, and he added that none of this has to come to public attention. 4

Levison told Jones that they would have to talk about some observations of things that exist there (in Atlanta). Jones indicated that he would try to arrange an appointment to see Rustin tomorrow, and Levison replied that would be all right with him. 4

On February 26, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Martin Luther King contacted Clarence Jones on that date. Jones stated that Joan Daves — (who is the publisher's representative for King's new book) was concerned about some of the material contained in the article for "The Nation" because she felt the publisher of the book and "Life" (magazine) might feel that the material was not new enough if it appeared in "The Nation" first.

King said that he had already sent the article to "The Nation" and that he had only made some minor changes. Jones said that Joan Daves thought the article was so good that it should be tied in with the book and also the article in "Life" because they would get "more money and exposure". Jones mentioned that neither he nor "his friend" (Stanley Levison) had any real thoughts about this, but he said Daves was quite persuasive and the more they thought about it the more they felt she had a point.

Jones said he had a substitute article ready to submit in place of the first article. King stated that the last chapter of the book was going to be in "Life" and that he did not see any problems because "The Nation" article did not deal with the subject of the last chapter. Jones stated the problem is that Daves thought the article for "The Nation" is so good that it should be included in the last chapter of the book. King told Jones to call "The Nation" and tell them to hold up publication of the article. King also instructed Jones to let him have the article and that he would get it back to "The Nation" by the weekend.

Jones told King that "we" have been "overhauling" and going over the records of the New York Office (of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference SCLC Office) in connection with mailing procedures and the (mailing) lists. Jones mentioned in connection with this that "our friend" (Stanley Levison) and Miss Adele Cantor (an employee of the SCLC) would like very much to go down to Atlanta on Friday and Saturday, and King replied that those dates would be all right with him. Jones said he would notify the people (Levison and Cantor) about Friday, and King told Jones to have them call him so he could have them picked up.

King stated in regard to the Rockefeller affair on Saturday, "we" are rebuilding three churches in Georgia and that he was wondering if the money collected could go to church rebuilding. Jones stated it would be all right. King mentioned that they had raised $76,000 and that they need over $90,000. Jones mentioned that the "Rockefeller people" are so tax conscious that they put tax considerations above all other considerations. Jones stated that they would rather give the money to the SCLC and not to King's church. Jones remarked that the money could be given directly to the building fund and there would be no question about a tax deduction. King indicated that the way it is arranged at the present time the check would be made out to the Urban League and that they would make the distribution. King mentioned that the name of the fund is the Mt. Olive Baptist Church Building Fund and that Nelson Rockefeller is familiar with it because he gave $10,000 to it. King said that he talked to Rodman Rockefeller (who is the son of Governor Rockefeller) and he stated that Rodman wanted to guarantee him $6,500 and the remainder was to go to the (Urban) League no matter how much money was collected. King said he told Rodman that he could not do it that way because the League did not have trouble collecting money and that they were tax exempt and that he could not use his time collecting money for organizations other than his own. King mentioned that "apparently you have a little dissension in the League", and Jones indicated that there was and stated that "they" (the Urban League) want all of the money. Jones stated that (Rodman) Rockefeller indicated to him that unless he (Jones) could furnish him a tax exempt organization to which a contribution could be made in order to contribute to King, then the contribution would only be taken. Jones said that Rockefeller should be happy contributing to the Mt. Olive Fund because there would be no question as to the tax exemption.

Jones advised King that he and Joan Daves had discussed the possibility of discussing King's picture rights (regarding the book) with Harry Belafonte and 20th Century Fox. King said that would be fine.

On February 26, 1964, the same confidential source, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison on that date. Jones indicated to Levison that he had spoken to King. Levison mentioned in regard to the article for "The Nation", that he has not sent the substitute material to "The Nation" but would send the material today. Levison told Jones that he should call "The Nation" and tell them that the substitute material is being sent because the use of the original material might cause some problems with King's publishers over the copyrights of King's forthcoming book. Jones stated that Friday would be fine with King. Levison mentioned that he is not feeling well, and he stated the day he meets with King will depend on how he is feeling at the end of the week.

On February 26, 1964, the same confidential source furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted a representative of "The Nation" on that date. In regard to the feature article by Martin Luther King, Jones was told that the type is set and that the magazine is ready to go to press. Jones said that he will have to discuss this matter with King and with the publishers of King's forthcoming book. Jones also said that he realizes it is too late to kill the publication of the article and that it is all right for "The Nation" to print it.

On February 26, 1964, the same confidential source furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison on that date. Jones said that he had been in touch with "The Nation" and that it is too late to kill King's article and submit a substitute article. Levison indicated he feels that "The Nation" realizes the value of an article which is going to be published in a book at a later date. Levison said he will take the substitute article to "The Nation".

Records of Eastern Airline reflect that Stanley Levison and Adele Cantor had reservations on Eastern Flight 503 departing from Newark airport on February 28, 1964, at 12 noon for Atlanta.

On February 27, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Martin Luther King on that date. During the course of their discussion King told Jones to have Levison and Cantor come down (to Atlanta) a week from Monday since the committeemen will not be available until then.

~~A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1963, that as of July 16, 1963, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America.~~

It is to be noted that when King and Jones refer to their friend, they are referring to Stanley Levison.

On October 28, 1958, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to Jean Smith, Secretary at Communist Party Headquarters, New York City, before Harry Belafonte came into prominence, he had been a member of the Young Communist League (YCL).

~~The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.~~

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel for the Gandhi Society For Human Rights, 15 East
40th Street, New York City.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he had identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL). 2/4

The NYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

With respect to the information concerning the Rockefeller affair, it is to be noted that King was scheduled to appear at a fund raising luncheon, which is being sponsored by the Westchester County Urban League. The luncheon was scheduled for February 29, 1964, at 12:30 PM at Governor Rockefeller's estate, Pocontico, Westchester County, New York.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[On April 8, 1964, Dallas T-1] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was held at the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Elmwood and Evans Streets, Fort Worth, Texas, on April 5, 1964. MARTIN LUTHER KING had been scheduled to address the meeting, however, Reverend C. T. VIVIAN, an associate of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, gave the main address. [According to Dallas T-1] the meeting started at 3:40 P.M., and lasted until 6:20 P.M., and there were between 900 and 1,000 persons at the meeting. [Dallas T-1] noted that several of the automobiles had licenses indicating they were from Dallas County.

Reverend VIVIAN stated that every means must be used by Negroes to exert non-violent pressure for equal rights and listed such weapons as economic pressure, mass meetings and demonstrations. Reverend VIVIAN stated they were not out to wreck a man's business but to change his attitude.

Reverend PAUL SIMS, of Fort Worth, Texas, local leader of the SCLC, spoke on desegregation of public schools in Fort Worth and told of the progress.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The Atlanta and New York Offices are instructed to attempt to obtain a list of the current officers, staff and Executive Board of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and furnish copies of such a list to the Bureau and all interested offices in order that the office and Bureau files may be checked for any information of a subversive nature pertaining to these individuals. Utmost discretion must be utilized in efforts to obtain such a list.

When the lists are obtained, each office covering the territory in which the individuals reside should be instructed to review their files for information pertaining to the individuals and furnish such information to the Bureau, New York and Atlanta, in memorandum form suitable for dissemination. In the event information has previously been furnished to the Bureau concerning such individuals, the office should not merely refer to the previous communication but should prepare a current up-to-date letterhead memorandum.

In furnishing the information to pertinent offices, instructions should be included that this matter be handled expeditiously and that pertinent communications reach the Bureau within 30 days from the date requested.

In addition to the above, Atlanta and New York should commence submitting reports concerning this matter to the Bureau each 60 days. In this regard Atlanta and New York should prepare a report for submission to the Bureau within 30 days. The submission of the reports on a 60-day basis may be terminated after 10/1/64 when reports may again be submitted on a 6-month basis.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE

Atlanta and New York should also instruct offices covering the territory in which other branches of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference exist to make appropriate checks of the officers within these branches and set forth pertinent information in memorandum form suitable for dissemination as indicated above. The names of any such officers should also be immediately furnished to the Bureau.

NOTE:

In view of indications that there will be considerable civil rights activity during the summer months and the possibility that this activity may include acts of violence, we are obtaining the above-mentioned lists in order to be certain that the Bureau is aware of any subversive activity on the part of individuals connected with this group. This, of course, will include individuals who may have recently become affiliated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) not only in Atlanta and New York but wherever branches exist. We are currently conducting a communist infiltration type of investigation concerning the SCLC.
